Chapter 3

THE SCOUT GROUP

Scouting in the United Kingdom is organised in Scout Groups, Scout Districts, Scout Counties and Country Headquarters. These 'units' of Scouting provide:

- support;
- channels for communication;
- opportunities for youth Members and adults to make decisions and take responsibility;
- functional units through which the design and delivery of the youth programme can be best achieved.

A Scout Group comprises one or more of any or all of the following: a Beaver Scout Colony; a Cub Scout Pack or a Scout Troop. Additionally, a Group may also include one or more Group Scout Active Support Units. An Explorer Scout Unit may also be attached to a Scout Group (see Rule 3.16).

Rule 3.1 Membership of the Scout Group

- a. No individual aged 18 or over may be permitted to undertake any role or responsibilities within Scouting until the appropriate enquiries have been made. The enquiries must include a Personal Enquiry to Headquarters, and certain roles require a disclosure as part of the Personal Enquiry process (see the Child Protection Policy and POR: The Appointment Process).
- b. There are two types of membership - Members and Associate Members.
- c. British Subjects who are prepared to follow the Association's principles by making the Promise may become Members or Associate Members of the Scout Movement (subject to the Rules contained within Policy, Organisation and Rules).
- d. Foreign residents in the United Kingdom, with the approval of an appropriate Commissioner, may become Members or Associate Members.
- e. When an individual becomes a Member that person becomes a member of a Group, District and County (as appropriate). They also become a Member of The Scout Association and of the World Organisation of the Scout Movement.

- j. There is no maximum age limit for membership but all adult appointments are subject to a minimum age limit of 18.
- k. There are membership options for adults not holding appointments to become Members or Associate Members on ceasing to hold an appointment.
- l. Members or Associate Members do not have any rights, actual or implied, to take part in the national management of The Scout Association or the World Organisation of the Scout Movement.

Members

Chapter 3 THE SCOUT GROUP

Rule 3.2 Admission to membership

In the case of a Sponsored Scout Group, this decision should also be subject to the recruitment policy (if any) defined in any sponsorship agreement.

Guidance on Sponsored Groups can be found on our website.

- b. The Group Scout Leader will generally delegate responsibility for admissions to the Leader in charge of the Section concerned. This decision must be made in accordance with The Scout Association's Policies.
- c. There may be situations where a Group does not have the capacity or resources to meet the needs of a young person or make the reasonable adjustments necessary. In such instances, the District Commissioner should work with the parents/carer to find an alternative Group.

Rule 3.3 Forfeit of membership

- a. Beaver Scouts, Cub Scouts and Scouts forfeit membership if they leave the Group.
