

It's Gruffalo Tea Time

If your tummy's rumbling like the mouse's, it might be time for some tasty tea time treats ...

"Toowhit Toowhoo" Toasted Sandwiches

Make your favourite sandwich and cut two sides off, just like the picture, so that you have an owl's body and two wings. Arrange them on a plate and ask a grown-up to do some slicing for you. Add cucumber and carrot slices for eyes. Put raisins or blueberries in the middle of the eyes and cut a black olive for the beak. Make feet out of pieces of carrot or cheese. Toowhoo!

- Wrap the sandwich in foil before toasting over a fire.

What a tasty tweet!

What big eyes the Gruffalo has!

Gruffalo Eyes

Ask a grown-up to cut circles of ready sliced cheese. Lay them on top of round crackers, with a raisin, olive or half a grape in the middle.

Sweet Snow Gruffalos

Stick three white marshmallows together using a tube of white icing. Cut a raisin in half for the two eyes and glue on with more icing. Then use red "writing" icing for the nose. Stick on mini marshmallows for the arms. Scatter desiccated coconut around the Gruffalo for a snowy effect.

- Now try adding your Sweet Snow Gruffalo to a stick and roasting it over a fire

Poisonous Warts

Wash a packet of green grapes, pull them off their stems and put them in a bowl.
